

Lorna Doucette is a eleven-year-old sixth grader who loves baking sweet treats, singing with her local youth choral, and taking her Holland Lop bunny for walks. She loves reading poems by Jack Prelutsky and Shel Silverstein, graphic novels like the Hazardous Tales or Wings of Fire series, gardening with her school gardening club, and learning to play the piano and viola. She loves performing with her choir, including auditioning for and performing with the International Ballet's performance of The Nutcracker.
