

Anna lives in Houston (TX) and studies in the 4th grade at Memorial Elementary School. She is a passionate young artist who loves to draw, and she, by her own initiative, illustrates tales, legends, and ballads of the great Armenian poet Hovhannes Tumanyan. Anna likes to draw animals, nature, and also makes art in the world of her imagination and fantasy, in her very own style. Her hobbies are rollerblading and art. Anna started drawing at the age of 3, and today she is 10, and she is still doing art classes.

What Will I Do When I Grow Up?

by Anna Avagyan

